1.0 Te Pūtake

Te Wānanga o Aotearoa (TWOA) provides a supportive environment for taura and responds to taura complaints in a fair and timely manner. The purpose of this tikanga whakahaere is to ensure:

- (a) There are clear pathways for taura to provide feedback, express their concerns, voice their complaints and have their grievances resolved;
- (b) Complaints are promptly and properly investigated and decisions are based on sound evidence; and
- (c) There is a central, institute-wide system to monitor complaints and the actions taken by TWOA to resolve them.

Scope:

This tikanga whakahaere applies to all current, prospective and past taura of TWOA.

2.0 Tikanga whakahaere

Te Wānanga o Aotearoa Values
Te Aroha Having regard for one another and those for whom we are responsible and to whom we are accountable.	TWOA encourages any taura with a complaint to express that complaint through the appropriate channel. A complaint is any type of problem, concern or grievance about TWOA or the TWOA environment. Taura may also make a complaint about a matter relating to any aspect of their studies or journey at TWOA. This may include but is not limited to bullying, discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment or victimisation. An Educational Appeal will not be considered through the taura complaint process. Whānau support is encouraged and taura may bring whanau to any meetings that occur within the investigation of their complaint.
Te Whakapono The basis of our beliefs and the confidence that what we are doing is right.	A complaint must be submitted in writing with evidence as appropriate. The Taura will be formally advised in writing of receipt of their complaint no later than five working days from the complaint being received. All information submitted in relation

	to the complaint will be dealt with confidentially and will only be disclosed to those parties involved in the investigation and decision of the complaint. TWoA will not investigate complaints raised by a third party or a parent on behalf of a taura. However these people may still support the taura submitting the complaint. The taura will be formally advised in writing of the outcome of the complaint no later than five working days from the outcome decision being made.
Ngā Ture The knowledge that our actions are morally and ethically right and that we are acting in a honourable manner.	A complaint will be resolved no later than 20 working days from the date of submission of the complaint. If the complaint cannot be resolved within this period the taura will be written to before the period has expired with an explanation for the delay, actions being taken to progress resolution and a new date for resolution. The new resolution date must be no more than 20 working days from the date of the letter to the taura. If requested by the taura TWoA will endeavor to provide her or him with alternative learning arrangements while the complaint is investigated. These arrangements must be acceptable to both TWoA and the taura. If the taura is dissatisfied with the outcome of the complaint they may formally apply to Te Rautiaki Mātauranga to appeal the outcome. They must submit their letter of appeal – including reasons for the appeal - no later than 20 working days of the date of the letter informing them of the outcome of the complaint. TWoA takes all taura complaints seriously and aims to resolve them within TWoA in the first instance if possible. If a complaint cannot be resolved within TWoA, the taura may take the complaint to the appropriate external organisation.
Kotahitanga Unity amongst iwi and other ethnicities; standing as one.
