time

Get the confidence and skills to start speaking Māori at a basic level.

Our Level 1 programme has been designed for beginners who have little or no knowledge of how to speak te reo Māori - the Māori language.

To help you with your learning, you'll also explore Māori traditions and practices so you will feel more comfortable in a range of settings where Māori language is spoken.

Entry Criteria

To enrol in this programme, a potential student must:

- › be at least 16 years of age
- › be a New Zealand citizen (or citizen of Australia, Tokelau, Niue, Cook Islands) or permanent resident
- › reside in New Zealand
- › have little or no knowledge of te reo Māori

Qualification Awarded

When you pass this programme, you'll get this qualification:

- › Te Pōkaitahi Reo (Rumaki, Reo Rua) (Te Kaupae 1) - New Zealand Certificate in Te Reo (Rumaki, Reo Rua) (Level 1)

Fees

There are no fees for this programme.

Potential Pathway

I want to keep studying

You can progress to a level 2 programme in te reo Māori or you might be interested in moving to an entry-level tikanga programme that focuses on Māori practices and protocols.

I want to use my qualification

Graduates will have the confidence to participate in the maintenance and development of te reo Māori amongst whānau and within their community. They'll also have a basic level of awareness that te reo Māori can be used to support and complement current skills and knowledge in the graduate's area of employment.
