

3 Toi Maruata Certificate in Māori and Indigenous Art Level 3

 March & July 2021  20 weeks  No fees  60 credits

Start your artistic journey in a supportive learning environment. This introductory programme enhances your knowledge of Māori art.

We'll teach you a broad range of toi (art) techniques and skills through completing practical projects. You'll also learn about te ao Māori (the Māori world) and how this connects to your identity.

With the help of our experienced kaiako, you can use this programme to:

- › kick-start your tertiary studies
- › develop a portfolio of work for entry into higher level arts programmes
- › start a process of personal exploration.

This programme combines the following modules:

Learning Modules	Credits
Toi Raupapa (Organisation) Students credited with this kōnae ako (module) will demonstrate the principle of toi raupapa and begin to learn about the kawa, tikanga, studio management and creative processes required for creating toi work.	5
Toi Iro (Exploration) Students credited with this kōnae ako will apply the principle of toi iro and begin to learn about their own identity. They will also explore the origins of a creative work/artist, while gaining a better understanding of their own practice.	10
Toi Awe (Creative Process) Students credited with this kōnae ako will apply the principle of toi awe and begin to learn about creative processes and practices and project planning.	10
Toi Hanga (Creation) Students credited with this kōnae ako will demonstrate the principle of toi hanga to create toi work informed by appropriate concepts, ideas, techniques and skills. Toi Hanga involves the 'hands-on' processes that occur during the creating of toi work.	35
