Mihi from Te Kura Toroa Chief Executive Officer

Tuia te rangi e tū nei

Tuia te papa e takoto nei

Ka rongō te pō, ka rongō te ao

Tuia te muka tangata

I takea mai i Hawaiki Nui

I Hawaiki Roa

I Hawaiki Pāmamao, te hono-i-wairua

Ki te whaiao, ki te ao mārama

Tihei mauri ora!

E te karanga o te rā, tēnā koe.

He Puāwaitanga – A Time to Celebrate

He Puāwaitanga is one of the most significant moments in the journey of our tauira – a time to reflect on the challenges overcome, the knowledge gained, and the future that now lies ahead. It's a privilege to join you, your whānau, classmates, and kaiako in celebrating this incredible milestone.

He Puāwaitanga means 'to come to fruition', and represents not just the completion of your studies, but the growth and transformation you have experienced along the way. Today is a testament to your resilience, determination, and commitment to your goals. Whether your journey has taken months or years, you have persevered through challenges and emerged stronger. For that, we acknowledge and celebrate you.

We've long believed that education is transformative, and our vision, "He takapau mātauranga, he whānau huarewa—whānau transformation through education," speaks to the impact learning has beyond the individual. When one person succeeds, their whānau, hapū, and iwi benefit too. That's why your achievement today is not just yours alone—it's something to be shared and celebrated by all those who have supported you along the way.

At Te Wānanga o Aotearoa, our mission is simple: 'Kia angitu te tauira – tauira success'. Success means something different for each of you. For some, this tohu will open doors to new career opportunities. For others, it represents a pathway to empowering your whānau, marae, hapū, iwi, and wider community. No matter what success looks like to you, today is about recognising how far you've come and the possibilities that now await.

I encourage you to embrace the opportunities that come next. Continue striving for excellence, continue learning, and continue using your skills and knowledge to create positive change. This is not the end of your learning journey, but a stepping stone to whatever comes next. Education is lifelong, and we hope to see many of you return to learn with us again in the future. Wherever your path leads, know that you'll always be a valued part of our whānau.

Take pride in this moment, celebrate your success, and enjoy the recognition you have worked so hard for. We're all incredibly proud of you.

Ngā manaakitanga

Evie O'Brien
Chief Executive Officer

Strengthening reo Māori beyond kura kaupapa

Te Tatau Strother | Taura
Te Ngaru Wehi | Kaiako

At 18 years old, Te Tatau Strother walked into his first Te Pīnakitanga ki te Reo Kairangi class at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa feeling like the youngest voice in a room full of experienced reo Māori speakers.

Fresh out of high school and about to take on an advanced level 7 reo Māori programme, usually filled with older and more experienced taura, Te Tatau could have easily been overwhelmed and out of his depth.

“I just finished high school and I was quite a bit younger than everyone, but they were all so loving toward me. They didn’t treat me as the young kid; they treated me as their pair and were always so inclusive,” says Te Tatau.

From the very first class, he felt a sense of belonging and a sense that he was exactly where he needed to be, and a huge part of that also came from meeting his kaiako, Te Ngaru Wehi.

“I found out that we both went through the same kura kaupapa, and from that point we made a connection. Te Ngaru always gave me great support and treated me like I was a younger brother.”

Having already come through kura kaupapa and having grown up speaking te reo Māori at home, with his dad as his first kaiako, there has never been a time in life when Te Tatau wasn’t fluent in te reo.

He has a solid foundation in te reo Māori, but chose to keep pursuing it, deepening his knowledge, strengthening his writing, and growing alongside his fellow taura.

And the same goes for Te Ngaru. Even as a kaiako, with years of kura kaupapa schooling behind him, he still finds himself learning alongside his taura while teaching the programme.

“Teaching Level 7 keeps you on your toes. Sometimes my taura ask questions I don’t immediately have the answer to, so I go back to my books and do the research. They challenge me as a kaiako, and I’m always trying to upskill myself so I can continue to give back to them,” says Te Ngaru.

Both Te Tatau and Te Ngaru hope to see more rangatahi continue to pursue their reo after kura kaupapa and wharekura, urging them not to let those hard-earned skills fade.

“Rangatahi already carry so much potential. Why squander the gifts you get at wharekura when you can continue to grow? Programmes like Te Pīnakitanga help those gifts thrive,” says Te Ngaru.
